Mr. AYCRIGG, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of James Ivory, report:

That the petitioner was a soldier of the revolutionary war; that he was wounded, and in consequence placed on the invalid pension roll, on the 15th day of June, 1786, at the rate of five dollars per month. To obtain the benefit of the act of March 18, 1818, he relinquished his pension, (as required by the act,) and was, on the 24th day of April, 1816, again placed on the pension roll, at the rate of eight dollars per month. He now asks that the pension relinquished by him may be restored, in addition to the pension last mentioned.

The committee report against the prayer of the petitioner.
